

Stored Function

- A stored function in MySQL is a set of SQL statements that perform some task/operation and return a single value.