

Trigger

- It is a special type of stored procedure that is invoked automatically in response to an event.
- Each trigger is associated with a table, which is activated on any DML statement such as INSERT, UPDATE, or DELETE.