

Use of triggers in mysql

- Triggers help us to validate data even before they are inserted or updated
- Triggers increases the performance of SQL queries because it does not need to compile each time the query is executed.